

Kenny Cloggie
Year of Call: 2020

Since calling to the Bar in 2020, with twenty-five years of criminal defence work experience, Kenneth Cloggie quickly established himself as one of the most sought-after junior counsel. Often stepping in for senior, he has established one of the strongest criminal practices at the Bar. With an excellent reputation amongst all Court users, he is instructed throughout the country by leading criminal defence firms and prioritises cases on the order of instruction only. He is well known for his ability to distil complex cases into easily understandable issues for the Court, client, and the decision-maker. He is dedicated to the right of an accused to have a fair trial. At trial, his legal knowledge, cross examination skills and ability to connect with the jury has helped to establish his success.

Areas of Practice

Criminal Trials

FAI and Public Inquiries

Human Rights

Health and Safety

Road Traffic Violations

Wildlife Crime

Publications

Faculty Response to The Scottish Government Consultation Paper on the Not Proven Verdict and Related Reforms

Faculty Response to the Lord Advocate's Code of Practice on the Questioning and Recording of Questioning of Persons Suspected or Accused of Committing Offences

Appointments and memberships

Lead Co-ordinator of Young citizens Bar Mock Trials Project, increasing awareness of opportunities in law for pupils from state schools.